A Call for Cultural Courage: Making Space for Artists Studios and Creativity in Ottawa

Saturday, October 26th at EBA - 1PM. Free Event

Enriched Bread Artists
951 Gladstone Avenue
Ottawa, ON K1Y 3E5

Join us to discuss how arts and culture can be a catalyst for cultural, community and urban development. There will be a specific focus on developing artistic hubs as speakers share their experiences of successful models for artists studios in other cities.

3 speakers:

Artscape

Assaf Weisz, Chief Strategy Officer
Based in Toronto, Artscape has generated national attention through a model based on “creative place-making” that seeks to leverage the power of arts and culture as a catalyst for cultural, community and urban development.

Ateliers Creatifs

Gilles Renaud, General Manager
Ateliers Creatifs in Montréal is a non-profit organization whose mandate is to develop and protect affordable, adequate and sustainable workplaces and creation for professional artists in the visual arts, crafts and cultural organizations.

Studio Space Ottawa, Art Services Organization

Kathy Bergquist, Co-founder and President of the Board of Directors
Studio Space Ottawa is an arts sector not for profit recently established in July 2019 and created for the sole purpose of creating affordable, stable, open, and safe, healthy workspaces for visual artists.

Coordinators and Moderators: Cindy Stelmackowich and Dan Sharp,
Enriched Bread Artists

Presented by: EBA and Chapter One Studios
Enriched Bread Artists gratefully acknowledges the financial support of the City of Ottawa
